My dear Nanjundayya,

(1) I return herewith one of the two notes, which you kindly forwarded with your D O letter of the 15th instant I consider that some such proposal is necessary to advance the education of girls Perhaps you will agree that one-third of the amount or so might be set apart to encourage classes of people who have hitherto not availed themselves of existing facilities in respect of female education

(2) If you will kindly obtain from the Inspector General of Education a clearly worded statement or set of rules for the distribution and utilization of the amount, the proposal may be considered in Council and submitted for His Highness's approval

(3) The question of women's education requires comprehensive treatment but to attempt such treatment would be futile with the present pressure of work Education itself will suffer if useful proposals like this are not taken up and sanctioned as they come up I trust you will agree that it will be sufficient

Education of Girls

2 (1) At present there is not the same reluctance as was usual some years ago to send girls to schools But very few persons even in the cities take their education seriously Some further encouragement in the direction of inducing parents to see to the education obtained in schools being more effective is necessary

( ) At present scholarships are awarded to girls under G.O dated

(3) I do not think that this is sufficient I therefore make the following proposal for early consideration Rs 500 a month or 6000 per annum should be provided for Scholarships and Rs 2,000 for awarding prizes in the shape of Schoolbooks &c, The Maharanee's College has its own allotment and need not have any part of this sum The scholarships may be

100 of Re ½ each

200 of Re 1 each

Rs 600

Rs 7200

and 400 of annas 8 each

B 600 or 700 at a cost of R^s500 per month P^s 2000

more may be kept to be awarded as prizes five presents of books, Slate, &c.

(4) Girls who attend the School diligently and punctually should be eligible The Scholarships may be awarded to those who excel in their work in the class The school committee should be entrusted with the work They would be paid only as long as the girl continued to do well in her class

(5) In small places, the attendance of girls in boys' schools may be encouraged in the primary classes alone Some of these Scholarships prizes should be awarded in such institutions also

(6) If the scheme is approved, the required sum should be provided in the budget for the next year

Two points were urged in the permanent Financial Secretary's note dy 8 10 14 namely, (1) that the expenditure of Rs 9260 per annum in the shape of Scholarships and prizes would not produce proportionate results and (2) that a definite source should be pointed out for any expenditure on this acct to be met in the current year

The expenditure is for promoting female education and the point urged had reference to the form of expenditure and not to the expenditure itself As it has been decided that a system of Scholarships and prizes is necessary for encouraging female education and as the expenditure itself will be only for two years and this non recurring, unless the results justify the adoption of the measure for a longer period, no objection to the proposal is raised on financial grounds

Only one months expenditure namely, that for may 14 has to be provided for in the current year vide rule 3 of the Rules for Grant of Scholarships the amount being small it is presumed that the D Is of Education will be able to reconcile a Specific Sum in the budget for meeting the charge to be incurred this year

Subject — Increasing the number of scholarships prizes, etc , to girls for encouraging female education

The Government have sanctioned from time to time the grant of special scholarships to encourage female education in the State

Though there is not at present the same reluctance as was usual some years ago to send girls to schools, -- only very few persons even in the cities take the education of girls seriously.

Orders have been passed recently regarding the --- improvement of female education in the Collegiate and Secondary grades and in that connection an amount of Rs 600/- per annum has been allotted for granting scholarships of a value not exceeding Rs 3/- or Rs 4/- per mensem to girls in the primary classes of the Maharani's College

Additional facilities for encouraging the education of girls in the primary and secondary schools in the -- - shape of scholarships, prizes and free grant of school - requisities such as books, slates, etc , are very necessa

The Inspector General of Education was consulted in the matter and he has submitted his proposals with a set of draft rules to regulate the facilities to be provided.

The scheme involves an additional cost of -- - Rs 9,200/- per annum, the details being as follows -

(i) 100 scholarships of Rs 2/- each per mensem to be granted to girls reading in all Anglo - Vernacular classes, and Vernacular classes from the III class upwards.

(ii) 200 scholarships of Re 1/- each per mensem to be awarded to girls of the II Vernacular class

(iii) 400 scholarships of 8 annas each per mensem to be awarded to the girls of the I Vernacular class.

& (iv) a grant of Rs.2,000/- per annum for prizes etc

One third of the grant for scholarships may be set apart for the encouragement of such classes of people as have not hitherto availed themselves of the existing facilities for female education.

The draft Government Order embodying the schome

may be sanctioned
